Jeff Branick was born and raised in Port Arthur where he graduated from Thomas Jefferson High School in 1976.

He studied at Lamar University in public affairs and then attended the University of Texas School of Law and the Baylor University School of Law where he obtained his Juris Doctorate degree in 1984.

He began working with the Provost & Umphrey law firm in 1979 while he attended Lamar and returned there in 1984, becoming a partner in 1986. He is board certified in personal injury trial law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization.

He opened a neighborhood law practice in 1998, primarily doing pro bono work. In 2007, he accepted the position of attorney to the county judge. He was elected and assumed the office of Jefferson County Judge in 2011.

Since taking office he has worked tirelessly on coastal erosion protection and hurricane storm surge protection for coastal residents. In recognition of his efforts, he was awarded the Wetlands Conservation Achievement Award by Ducks Unlimited at the 2017 National Wildlife and Natural Resources Conference.

He was appointed by Texas Land Commissioner George P. Bush to the Coastal Coordination Advisory Committee for the Texas Coastal Management Program and by the Environmental Protection Agency Local Government Advisory Council.

He has been involved in numerous civic, social and faith-based organizations serving as officer, board member and legal counsel for the Commissioner of The Texas State Commission on National and Community Service, Port Cities Rescue Mission Ministries Board (president), YMCA Port Arthur board, president, and other offices.

He is a member of the board of the Southeast Texas Government Employees Benefits Pool and has been the president of the Jefferson County Housing Finance Corporation for many years.

He is a member of the United Methodist Temple in Port Arthur where he has served as lay leader, family life coordinator, chairman of Staff-Parish Relations, and as guest pastor on several occasions during pastor’s vacations.

His hobbies include fishing, hunting, backpacking, river rafting and reading.

He is married to Sherrie (Booker) Branick, a Beaumont native, and together they have two children, Merritt and Ellie Grace.

Pledge of Allegiance to the United States

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

Pledge of Allegiance to Texas

Honor the Texas flag;
I pledge allegiance to thee
Texas one state under God one and indivisible.

The Star-Spangled Banner

O say, can you see
By the dawn's early light
What so proudly we hail'd
At the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars
Through the perilous fight
O'er the ramparts we watch'd
Were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare
The bombs bursting in air
Gave proof through the night
That our flag was still there
O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free
And the home of the brave?
Lamar State College Port Arthur is an equal opportunity/affirmative action educational institution and employer. Students, faculty, and staff members are selected without regard to their race, color, creed, handicap, age, sex, or national origin, consistent with the Assurance of Compliance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964; Executive Order 11246 as issued and amended; Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 as amended; and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.
